Key Implementation Tips for Family Planning in Pharmacy

3. Integration as Reproductive Health Service provider Efficient data capture, reporting. use of MOH reporting tools; integration into MOH systems, data use for decision making

Client retention strategies e.g., side effects management, reminders (TCA cards), follow-ups Reliable referral options and emergency preparedness for adverse drug reactions, linkage with CHPs, other private service providers

Continuous mentorship and learning technical support (e.g., Detailers, secure logins confidentiality.

1. Capacity Building
Pharmacy selection
MOH approved curriculum
Training Completion
certificates
Linkage to public health facilities
Completion of log books

More pharmacies providing FP services: Increased access for women of reproductive age

4. Technical Assistance and Accreditation Unique designation and identification as an RH

Listing in various data bases including MOH Professional Associations
websites and county

2. Service Provision:

Reliable supply of variety of quality FP methods Robust waste management systems

Awareness Creation; Displayed FP signage and IEC materials, digital marketing unseling cards, pregnancy checklists, anatomical models, samples.

Integrated RH services (GBV and HIV counselling). Essential job aids (e.g., WHO MEC wheel etc)

Infrastructure: Safe, well-lit, hygienic, and private spaces ("safe spaces")

Availability of equipment (BP machines, weighing scales, thermometers)